

Deep Cove Physiotherapy

Meet Paige Larson

Our mission is to provide you with the very best care possible.

Paige Larson with Jeffrey Buttle, 2008 World Figure Skating Champion, at the 4 Continents Championships in Seoul, Korea, Feb 2008, where Paige was the Physiotherapist for Team Canada.

PAIGE LARSON

SPORTS PHYSIOTHERAPIST
CERTIFICATE IN MANUAL & MANIPULATIVE THERAPY
CERTIFIED IN ACUPUNCTURE
BScPT, BPE, RCAMT, CAFCI

Paige Larson is a Sports Physiotherapist, educated at the University of Toronto, earning a certificate in manual and manipulative therapy as well as acupuncture. She also has a degree in physical education from the University of British Columbia.

Paige's career includes 20 years experience in private practice on the North Shore. She worked with the National Women's Wheelchair basketball team for eight years, keeping them healthy to win World titles continuously during her involvement. She continues to work with Skate Canada providing physio for National team members at home and abroad. She was Chief Therapist for the 2001 World Figure Skating Championships.

Paige attended the 2000, 2004 and 2008 Paralympic Games as part of Team Canada's medical team and continues her involvement with athletes as part of VANOC, managing therapy at the figure skating and sledge hockey venues. Her sports training gives her an extensive background in treating sports injuries of any sort, as well as car accident and work place injuries.

Deep Cove Physiotherapy
453 North Dollarton Highway
North Vancouver, BC
V7G 1M9

604.929.8444
7 am — 7 pm Mon - Fri

www.deepcovephysiotherapy.com

Paige looks forward to working with you at Deep Cove Physiotherapy

Open to Every Body

Medical referrals are not required for Clinic services.